

Pop-Up Poetry in the Park

Hello and welcome to our slightly irregular
STRAWBERRYGREENPRODUCTIONS newsletter.

Poetry in the Park is a blend of gorgeous words that entangle, twist, and then turn to reveal lifetime experiences and observations that are simply beautiful. It is a safe space to share your work, made possible by the endeavour of a super fab collaborative bunch of passionate people.

What's it all about?

We set out to create a platform for all creative writers, whether you're into poetry, song lyrics, limericks, scripts, or personal essays. And who doesn't enjoy the odd dodgy dad joke?

Whatever your style, you're always most welcome.

Everyone is welcome – pop along any time for as long as you like. The café will be open, and the poetry will flow.

camera – lights – action kick-off at 11:00 am

If you're happy to read on the day, we'd be delighted to capture the moment for future radio broadcasts and social media footage.

However, it is absolutely not mandatory, and we respect your decision. Our go-to preference is to create a space where you can share your work, and everyone involved feels at ease and is always comfortable.

Talented word-slingers love an audience

Please remember, wherever or however you consume this universal language of creative prose, don't be shy or hold back.

If you can't make it on the day or feel the urge to check out the performances, they're available on Facebook. Give the gang a thumbs up, like-like, or gentle ripple of applause or hoorah!

If you're a supporter of the arts, please follow us. Every little helps, and it will make our day!

Reader on the Day

Keen to share your work with an audience. But your preference is for less visible participation rather than being front and centre of the nation. We've got this covered, and our reader, Dr Pete Jeffs, will take great care of your creative work on the day.

Find out more and follow us on Facebook.

BIG THANKS & POSITIVE VIBES

As the name suggests, Pop-Up Poetry in the Park's objective is to share poetry and any creative written words from individuals who, possibly for the first time, have not stood in front of an audience and shared their work.

Listen Again

If you can't join us on the day, listen to Swindon 105.5, your local radio station. Seven days a week, it supports the town and our creative, vibrant arts scene.

AND WITHOUT YOU!

BIG THANKS to our magnificently adventurous, creative poets for their wonderful words and insights into their rich lives.

BIG THANKS & POSITIVE VIBES

Thank you to the delightful South Swindon Parish Council team for your understanding and invaluable support of our thriving local creative arts scene. Your role is crucial and greatly appreciated.

Abigail Garside-Scutts,
Events Manager, thank you for oiling the wheels and all the heavy lifting to make it happen.

And to our wonderful hosts, Old Town Gardens - a fabulous place to hang out and watch the world go by.

BIG THANKS & POSITIVE VIBES

However, without YOUR participation, we'd be talking to the trees, a bunch of squirrels, and the odd hungry crow on the hunt for our cheese sandwiches.

Whether you're passing by, stopping for a coffee, or simply curious by nature, please take a moment to soak up the lyrical theatrical prose floating through the park.

Wishing you all the best
Andrew

Sometimes, we all – even creative types could do with a little break
– no hard feelings.
